Nov 4: Cyber Self-Defense for Seniors

With John Stratton, U.S. Army Veteran & Cybersecurity Professional

Scammers target seniors more than any other group. Learn how to protect yourself. This session teaches practical skills to recognize email scams, protect your accounts and browse safely online. Discover how to spot phishing attempts, create strong passwords and avoid common fraud tactics. No technical experience required. Walk away with confidence and actionable strategies you can use immediately to stay safe in the digital world. Bring your questions!

Nov 11: Honor Flight

Special video presentation in honor of Veteran's Day

No speaker today—instead, we are paying tribute to Veteran's Day with a special screening of Honor Flight (2012), a heartfelt and award-winning documentary film about a Midwest community racing to thank its World War II veterans by flying them to the memorial in Washington, D.C.—a journey filled with memories, gratitude, and one final salute to their service. The film is one hour and 22 minutes in length.

Nov 18: Stories from Western Rivers Conservancy

With Sue Doroff, Cofounder, President Emerita and Jake Campbell, Donor Relations Officer

Western Rivers Conservancy has been protecting the riverlands and waters we love for over 35 years. Discover how they've safeguarded vital stretches of more than 260 rivers and streams across nine Western states, including many right here in Oregon. Through stunning photography and uplifting stories, you'll see the beauty of the West's wild places and learn how these vital waterways are being preserved for generations to come.

No program on Tuesday, November 25 — HAPPY THANKSGIVING!
